What are you grateful for today?

Write a letter to someone that you don’t communicate with as much as you should.
What are you grateful for today?

Describe the place you go to find peace.
What are you grateful for today?

How has someone you care about changed your life in a small but meaningful way?